WHAT HOME FOLKS DO AND SAY

About Local People and Events and Other Matters of Interest

Miss Madge Kent spent Sunday with friends in Brookfield.

Spanish onions, sweet potatoes, cabbage and cantaloupes. Patrick's.—Adv.

A. J. Baum has been confined to his room a few days this week by illness.

Mrs. F. F. Pratt spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Weatherly, near Forker.

Girl wanted for general housework in family of two. Apply to J. N. Wilson or phone 93.

Well improved 120 acre farm 1½ miles from town for rent. Inquire at this office.—Adv.

Mrs. L. J. Stufflebean visited her daughter, Mrs. Anna Davis, at Chillicothe Wednesday and Thursday.

It will mean more money to you if you bring us your produce, butter, eggs, cream and poultry. J. B. Patrick.—Adv.

S. Baker came from Santa Ana, Calif., the last of the week for a short visit with old friends and to look after matters on his farm near Forker.

Motor spirits will give better satisfaction and go 25 per cent further than gasoline. Sold by J. B. Patrick.—Adv.

Those new fall hats have just arrived, the newest ideas in satins and felt, for fall and winter wear. Call and see them. Miss Ella Hancock.—Adv.

C. A. Read and John Wade have been drawn from this township to serve on the petit jury in the October term of circuit court to be held at Brookfield.

T. M. Hogan has bought the VanValkenburg place of three acres in the northwest part of town for $1500. He will set it to raspberries and other small fruit.

George Moren and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Stufflebean of Laclede were married in Chillicothe Wednesday by Judge J. E. Pardonner. Their many friends extend congratulations. They will reside in Laclede.

The outside work on the new Benson building is nearly completed. Part of the roof has been put on and plastering has been begun. The building is a fine one and would be a credit to any town.

R. E. Andres of Meadville, who shot himself with suicidal intent Wednesday morning of last week, died in a Chillicothe hospital Tuesday morning and was buried at Wheeling, his former home, Wednesday.

The manufacturers and merchants of Quincy have combined to put on an exposition in that city. The "Made in Quincy" show and industrial exhibition will be held at Highland Park and the new baseball grounds adjoining Sept. 18 to 28.

The Blade has had considerable to say about fine peaches lately, but Tuesday Miss Grace Haight brought in some raised at the home of her father, J. W. Haight, in Laclede that are undoubtedly the best we have seen. They were Elbertas, and one of them measured 9½ inches in circumference and weighed a fraction over nine ounces. They were beautifully colored and of exquisite flavor. If you have any that beat these we will be glad to see them.

Forker Items

The home of M. Fall a half mile east of Forker was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The family were just starting to visit neighbors when the fire was discovered and in half an hour the house was reduced to ashes. Part of the furniture was saved and the loss was partly covered by insurance. The fire started from a defective flue. The family are living in a tent at present.

A. B. Henderson's new barn two and a half miles northwest of Forker was destroyed by fire Saturday night, together with considerable hay and grain. Mr. Henderson was doing some chores after dark and some hay fell against a lighted lantern and ignited. Very little was saved. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Deardorff of Brookfield visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clough and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hogsett of near Laclede visited Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cole and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fall and children of Iowa returned home last Saturday after a visit with his brother, M. Fall, and family here.

Mrs. E. K. Welsh returned home Tuesday from a visit with friends and relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Mary Welsh and daughter, Miss Belle, visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore in Meadville Wednesday.

A crowd of young folks from Forker took their dinner and went picnicking on Loonst Creek Sunday. Those present were Misses Ella Welsh, Ethel Welsh, Edith Fay, Hazel Linn, Lillian Linn, Bernice Read and Etta Welsh, Messrs. Luke Brady, Ralph Bennett, Chas. Frakes, Roy Welsh, Howard Welsh, Guy Fay, Walter Andrews, Fred Fay and Dick Fay.

Oak Arbor Items

A new well was bored at Oak Arbor school house last week and school commenced this week with J. W. Lind as teacher.

Earl Day purchased a new buggy last week from Wm. Kraft.

Misses Mary and Benlah Scherrer of Rothville visited their uncle, Chris Brockman, and family on route three from Wednesday until Monday and attended the Meadville chautauqua.

Quarterly Conference

The fourth quarterly conference of the Laclede M. E. church will be held Thursday, Sept. 11, at 7:30 p. m. It is earnestly desired that all representatives of departments be present with their written reports. We desire a full attendance of the members of the conference. It is important that you be there.

T. J. ENYEART, Pastor.

ABOUT ALL SORTS OF SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

J. W. Moberly & Co. want your grain. Get their prices.—Adv.

Firkins & Pence will show 3,000 feet of moving pictures every night next week at their tent on J. H. Dick's lots near the depot. They carry their own electric machine and promise the best pictures ever shown in Laclede. Admission 10 cents.—Adv.

Joe Mitchell and Miss Stella McMillen, two popular young people of the Fountain Grove neighborhood, were united in marriage at Brookfield on Wednesday of last week, Rev. Bristow officiating. Mr. Mitchell formerly resided here where he has many friends who extend congratulations. They will reside in Brookfield.

J. J. Deininger of route two has rented his farm and with his family will soon move to their new home in Brookfield. Mr. Deininger will hold a public sale of live stock, implements and feed and will also sell some household and kitchen furniture at his farm a mile north and one-half mile west of Laclede Friday, September 12. See list on last page of the Blade today.

George and Leonard Jones of Laclede have bought lots in Linneus and are getting material on the ground for the erection of a produce house. They will move to Linneus with their families the latter part of this month and hope to be ready for business by the first of October. They will buy poultry, eggs and cream. Both are honest, industrious and energetic young men and the Blade commends them to the good people of Linneus and vicinity.

Wm. McGrew left last week for Laclede, Mo., for a few days' visit with his old friends and especially one friend who seems very dear to him. The many friends of Mr. McGrew at Milton congratulate him on the move he is making. William is a good business man and holds a good position with the Badger Lumber Co. at this place. We are very glad to have him settle down among us. Everyone is requested to save all their old shoes for use later.—Milton correspondent in Conway Springs (Kan.) Star.

The Laclede public schools opened Monday morning with a good enrollment and a great deal of interest being manifested by the pupils, and all seem determined to help make this the most successful term of school ever held in Laclede. With a splendid corps of teachers, thorough equipment and nine months term, added to the school spirit already manifest, Laclede will have a school to be proud of, and one which it will pay non-resident students to attend. A number are already enrolled.

The Meadville Chautauqua Sunday night closed the most successful session in its history. Dr. James S. Montgomery Sunday morning delivered one of the finest lectures ever heard at Meadville, and Opie Read entertained the immense crowd in the afternoon with one of his inimitable monologues. At night the Hrubys and the Music Makers gave a delightful program. Record-breaking crowds were present every day and the programs were excellent all the through.

Popular Business Man Weds

J. Clair Lomax and Miss Gladys Lord went to Chillicothe on No. 43 last Sunday afternoon, August 31, accompanied Mrs. George W. Lord, Mrs. Fred Groetcke, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax, Victor W. Lomax and Mark H. Lomax, and were married in the parlors of the Leeper hotel at six o'clock by Rev. Hanna, pastor of the Chillicothe M. E. church, South. The attendants were Mrs. Birdie Groetcke of Brookfield, sister of the bride, and Victor W. Lomax of Brookfield, brother of the groom. The bride, who is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lord of Brookfield, was beautifully gowned in maize colored crepe meter, trimmed in rich gold lace, while the groom was attired in conventional black.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax of Laclede and is an energetic and popular young business man with a host of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes.

After the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Lomax left on No. 13 for a visit with relatives at St. Joseph and Kansas City and an extended tour of the West. They will be at home in Laclede after October 1.

Death of Mrs. A. H. Love

Mrs. Sarah Jane Love died at the family home in Laclede at four o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 3, after a week's illness, aged 79 years, 10 months and 13 days. She had been in poor health several years. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. T. J. Enyeart, and interment was in Laclede cemetery.

Sarah Jane Lawrence was born in Claridon, Ohio, Oct. 21, 1833. She was married to Albert H. Love at Knoxville, Ill., July 25, 1856. They moved to Missouri in March, 1867, and had since resided in Laclede. Four children, with the husband, survive her: Miss Laura of Laclede, William C. of Pomona, Calif., Mrs. Emma Reid of St. Louis and Lawrence, supposed to be in Alaska.

In early life Mrs. Love united with the M. E. church and was a faithful member. She was a good woman, a kind neighbor and a loyal friend, and the entire community extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held an all-day session at the home of Mrs. Harry Landree on route three Wednesday. At an early hour the ladies began to arrive with well-filled baskets, whose contents added to the bounteous meal already provided by the hostess gave the impression of anything but an Indian famine. The morning was spent in social chat; the afternoon in the regular business of the day and the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Mrs. C. C. Bigger, president; Mrs. J. E. Welsh, first vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Woods, second vice-president; Mrs. T. E. Foreman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry Landree, recording secretary; Mrs. J. L. Burke, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Welsh, assistant treasurer. The ladies were unanimous in their decision that an invitation to spend the day on Clover Leaf Farm would be acceptable at any time.

Sherwin-Williams and Horse Shoe paint and linseed oil at Patrick's.—Adv.
